WORLD FAMOUS DANCE COMPANY TO PERFORM

The Murray Louis Dance Company will give a free performance on July 23, at 8:00 p.m. in the Gallaudet Auditorium. Students from surrounding universities have been invited to join us for this very special show.

Murray Louis has composed work for dancer Rudolph Nureyev and collaborated with jazz composer Dave Brubeck. He is ranked among the great dancers and choreographers of our time.

For more information contact Deborah Shaine, extension 741 (voice) or 480 (TTY).

LAW CENTER RECEIVES GRANT

The Agnes and Eugene Meyer Foundation has awarded a grant to the National Center for Law and the Deaf, a joint project of Gallaudet College and George Washington University Law School. The year grant of $13,500 is for a Clinical Lawyer Supervisor. This Supervisor will help supervise law students working with the NCLD and help meet the expanding needs of hearing-impaired people in the Washington area.

SCUBA DIVING ANYONE?

The Prince George's County Memorial Library System is pleased to announce a special program introducing scuba diving to the public. The program will be presented by Mike Sheen of the Dynamo Dive Shop in College Park. Bob Landers, who teaches scuba diving at Gallaudet, will be on hand to answer any questions.

The program will be held at 7:30 on July 27, 1977 in the Meeting Room of the New Carrollton Branch Library. This program will be interpreted for deaf participants.

ELY HALL HAS NEW INHABITANTS

The office of Student Special Services has moved into Ely Hall. You can still contact Judy Duff and the gang at their old phone number, 732.

NEW FACILITIES PLANNING ANALYST ON BOARD

The Planning Office is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Henie Lustgarten to the position of Facilities Planning Analyst. Ms. Lustgarten will be responsible for coordinating the planning of all facilities projects on campus including new construction, major renovation, landscaping, parking, graphics, updating of the Facilities Master Plan, and developing the computerized Space Management System as a basic space planning resource.

Ms. Lustgarten will be located in an office in House #7, and her telephone number is 780 or 797.

CAID PROGRAM = A SUCCESS

Bob Davila, KDES, out-going president of the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf wishes to thank the many Gallaudetians who participated in the recent CAID program in Los Angeles as presenters, moderators, panelists, etc. Bob feels that the Convention's success was assured by the almost 40 campus personnel on the program. Thanks to everyone!

SBG IS IN NEED OF OFFICE EQUIPMENT

The Student Body Government Office is moving to Ely Hall around the 15th of August. They are in need of more office equipment, such as tables, chairs, cabinets or other office materials.

If anyone has any of these items that are not being used, the SBG would appreciate very much if you would contact their office between 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. any weekday in the Student Union Building.

SMITHSONIAN ASSOCIATES PLAN TOUR OF HISTORIC BUILDINGS

Special tours of Gallaudet's historic buildings have been planned by Gallaudet
for the Smithsonian Associates on July 16, 23, and 31, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Judy Bortner, accompanied by an interpreter, will be leading these very X
unique tours through our Victorian structures, a picture exhibit in the Library, and the Look of Sound.

President and Mrs. Merrill will host a luncheon in their 30-room Victorian mansion followed by a tour of their home.

Interested persons should contact the Smithsonian Associates for a registration blank. The cost of the tour is $10.00 for members of the Associates and $11.50 for non-members.

LEADERSHIP DEAF PROJECT

On July 24-30, the Public Service Programs will be sponsoring a Leadership program on campus that will provide an opportunity for grassroots leaders to acquire basic leadership skills in a practicum/seminar situation
so that they can take more active leadership roles in their respective states and local communities.

Twenty deaf persons from across the country will be living on campus while attending this program.

For more information contact Al Pimentel, extension 475 (Voice and TTY).

WELCOME TO HANK BEASLEY

Hank Beasley, who is currently the president of the National Center for a Barrier Free Environment, will be working on campus to help make Kendall Green barrier free. Hank will be located in the second level of the new Central Utility Building and can be reached by phone on extension 800.

ON THE GREEN is published bi-weekly by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College.
